Re: Walsh Securities, Inc. v. Cristo Property Management, Ltd., et al.
Civ. No. 97-3496(DRD)

Dear Counsel:

It appears to me that this is an opportune time to attempt to settle this case. I am scheduling a settlement conference to commence at 2:30 p.m. on Monday, March 14, 2011. Clients with decision making authority must be present at the conference.

In addition, I request that each party submit a confidential settlement memorandum to me on or before March 9. The memorandum should include a brief statement of the party's basic contentions on the merits and the terms that it believes would be a reasonable basis for settlement.

The reason for scheduling the conference at 2:30 in the afternoon is that I expect to be in the middle of a lengthy criminal trial that will run from 9:00 to 2:00 each day. If there should be a plea in the criminal trial, I will commence the settlement conference at 9:30 on March 14.

Very truly yours,

Dickinson R. Debevoise
